DAY 02.- LIMA – TRUJILLO

Free morning to make personal activities; in the afternoon transfer to the Airport to take flight to Trujillo. Arrival and transfer to your selected hotel. Accommodation in Trujillo.

*Additional: City tour in Lima (Per person $ 45 from 2 to 3 passengers and $ 25 from 4 to 6 passengers)

We visit Lima of the Viceroyalty, there you will enter to the Historical Lima's Downtown. In this place you will appreciate the amazing architecture of the traditional houses with their beautiful balconies, streets and squares that made proud to "Colonial" Lima. After a little journey through San Martin Square and Main Square you will go to San Francisco Monastery, which has the biggest sample of colonial art in America. There you can appreciate the chorus room and the monk's library, also the sacristy with a collection of Zurbaran and Rivera paintings. The big court of the main cloister finely decorated with Sevilla Tiles that dates from XVI century, its beautiful moriscos arcs and the underground paths best known as the Catacumbas, considered as Cultural Patrimony of the Humanity. In the return you will know the Contemporary Lima, the most residential and traditional place such as San Isidro.

DÍA 03.- EL BRUJO COMPLEX - SOL Y LUNA – CHAN CHAN RUINS – HUANCHACO

We head towards the Valley of Chicama to the north. El Brujo complex is approximately 60 kilometers away from Trujillo, near the Chicama River. Along the road, we drive across the countryside, passing sugar cane plantations and small villages. Before reaching El Brujo, we will make a short visit to the community of Magdalena de Cao. Afterward, we will head to El Brujo Complex, located nearby. Upon arrival, our local guide will show us the best sectors of the shrine and its spectacular friezes. Among the friezes, we will see a strange scene of naked warriors being taken to execution. Following our tour, we walk up to the next level to see more ancient structures. Here we will find bloody scenes of sacrificed children and images of priests of the Moche Elite. Afterward, we visit a zone where archaeologists made a remarkable discovery. There, below the ground archaeologists found the remains of an important Moche ruler, The Lady of Cao. Further digging uncovered a staggering array of wealth, as well as mysterious friezes. Among the relics found with her, stands out pieces of gold, as well as silver insignias and copper ornaments. Then visit to Templo del Sol y la Luna (for approximately 2.30 hours); journey through Moche countryside where traditional ways of how to cultivate the land can be watched, as well as typical clothes of local people, their delicious food, drinking, etc. Between the agricultural land and the desert are the Temple of the Sun which was built with over 100 million sun dried mud bricks, and it currently has a height of 45m, and the Temple of the Moon which consists of 6 buildings, one on top of the other. Moche City is buried among these 2 temples probably as the result of a big Phenomenon of Niño. Visit to Chan Chan Citadel for 3 hours. The visit begins at the temple Arco Iris o Huaca El Dragon in form of the square, built from the Chimu cultura in the II th to the 15 th century and surrounded by a wall with an altitude of 6 meters. Tour in the Museo de Sitio where models and scale models of an architectonic style similar to Moche and Chimu are shown, as well as a show of lights and sound can be watched. Then we will be visiting the impressive archeological complex of Chan Chan whose extension covered approximately 18 km2. TSCHUDI Palace, located in the south western area of the Complex, is one of the nine whose sector, the agricultural sector among others. Machu Picchu was long thought to be legendary. Then in 1911, the explorer Hiram Bingham stumbled upon it remains. Machu Picchu stands 2,430 m above sea-level, in the middle of a tropical mountain forest, in an extraordinarily beautiful setting. It was probably the most amazing urban creation of the Inca Empire at its height; its giant walls, terraces and ramps seem as if they have been cut naturally in the continuous rock escarpments. The natural setting, on the eastern slopes of the Andes, encompasses the upper Amazon basin with its rich diversity of flora and fauna. The guided tour in Machu Picchu will last about 2 hours, and afterwards you will have free time to explore the ruins on your own. At around 14:00hrs, we will take the bus down to Aguas Calientes, where you will have time for lunch and also to explore this colorful town that utterly filled with souvenirs shops, restaurants, bars, internet cafes etc.
